

Accelerate RFP Responses with Court Square Group

AI for CROs & Life Sciences Consultants

Win More Work.

Respond Smarter.

Court Square Group leverages Docxonomy AI to revolutionize the way Contract Research Organizations (CROs) and life sciences consultants approach RFPs. By tapping into your historical responses, our solution generates up to 90% of a new RFP automatically – saving you time, increasing consistency, and accelerating your path to new business.

Auto-Generated First Drafts

Leverage AI to create initial RFP responses using your past submissions.

Shorten Turnaround Time

Respond faster with fewer resources, without compromising quality.

Consistent Messaging

Ensure your value propositions are always clear, accurate, and compliant.

Centralized Knowledge

No more lost responses—previous work is indexed and reusable.

HOW IT WORKS

1

Upload your past RFP responses.

2

Docxonomy AI applies Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) to draft new responses.

3

Edit, review, and submit with confidence.

RESULTS THAT MATTER

Reduce manual work by up to 80%

Increase win rates with faster, higher-quality proposals

Eliminate knowledge silos across sales teams

BE READY.
FASTER.
SMARTER.
